

I am writing in effort to stop the federal government from weakening our Telephone Privacy law. I do not want to receive unwanted telemarketing calls. My phone rings enough with personal calls. I do not want to have to answer and listen to people try to sell me things I do not and will not buy over the phone.

Thank you,

Amy Lasko